

MESSAGE FROM THE HEADTEACHER

Dear Students, Parents and Carers,

Careers and Higher Education Fair

A huge thank you to all the employers and education institutions who supported our Careers event on Tuesday. There was an amazing range of companies giving up their time to attend and I would like to thank all of them for doing so. I would like to pay credit to Judith Bubb, our Careers Leader, who co-ordinates the event.

Likewise, I really appreciate the many parents, carers and students who attended. I hope that you found CHEF really useful in steering you towards (or away from) a particular career path.

IF YOU ATTENDED WE WOULD LOVE YOUR FEEDBACK

YEAR 7 NETBALL

Well done to all our Year 7 girls who played fantastically together in their netball tournament. It is great to see them blossoming into confident players, winning 1 of their games and staying in close contention for the rest!

PERFORMING ARTS NEWS

SPLENDID THEATRE COMPANY WORKSHOPS

On Tuesday 28th November we had a workshop with the fantastic Kerrie Frampton, Artistic Director of Splendid Theatre Company. Kerrie initially ran a 2 hour workshop with our Year 12 and 13 Drama students on their set text, Yerma. The students explored design and directing focussing on character and style. Following this workshop, our two Year 10 groups had a two-hour workshop, each exploring Physical Theatre. They explored the use of lifts, falls and physical movement to communicate a story. It was an excellent opportunity for students to experience a different style of theatre and teaching and work with a professional in the industry.

PUPPETRY

This term, Year 9 have been exploring four different theatre companies, all with their own style; Tamasha, Frantic Assembly, Handspring Puppetry Company and Knee High. Students have had a workshop lesson on the style and are now incorporating the methods into their practical assessments. This approach mirrors students' learning at GCSE and A Level. The Drama department has been very impressed with our Year 9 students' mature and creative approaches!

THE WITCHES TRIP

A reminder that students who have signed up for The Witches trip need to be outside Main Reception by 4.30pm on Wednesday 6th December.

VISIT TO BARBICAN CENTRE

A group of musicians attended the Barbican Centre on Friday evening to watch the BBC Symphony Orchestra perform the UK premier of Symphony Number 4 'Prague Symphony' by Detlev Glanert and the mysterious Symphony No. 4 in E minor by Johannes Brahms. For many of the students this was their first experience of a live orchestra and as one student said the performance was "splendidly banging!" Thank you to Miss Wong for organising the trip and allowing the students to witness such a unique performance.

them to explore issues and questions in a real-world context to nurture analytical and critical thinking as well as building resilience. The trips - done over a three day period to allow as many students as possible to attend - were designed to enrich key parts of the KS3 curriculum that cannot easily be covered in the classroom, with a particular focus on tectonic hazard theory and biological theory.

Thank you to everyone who supported this event.

Matched funding is achieved when a parent/carer/friend has donated to and/or helped at a charity event or activity and their employer/company operates a 'community charity support' scheme. The employee completes a form/applies to the company for a contribution towards the funds raised. It's also tax effective and can be deducted from the business corporation tax, plus, the employee can use it for their own tax advantage too.
